Continuously
From 1.2.36 he has been acting in II class. There is a permanent vacancy in II class from 18.2.1937 and it is proposed to confirm him in that vacancy. (This question is separately under consideration). He has put in a service of nearly 1 year and 7 months as Dy. Conr. II Class acting. His request to treat him as Dy Conr II class permanent or S.P.T. does not seem to be admissible, as there is no vacancy available then to admit of such an arrangement.

3) Re: (2) it is submitted that Mr Abdul Khader entered Service on 17th June 1907 and he becomes superannuated on 22.9.37. The total Service put in by him comes to 30 years, 3 months and 6 days. He went on leave without allowances for a period of 1 year 3 months and 3 days, as noted below:-

(1) For 1m - 16 days from 16.12.1907
(2) For 8m - 26 days from 9.9.1909
(3) For 4m - 21 days from 10.1.1912
1 -3 -3

As this period of 1 year 3 months and 3 days does not count for pension, the total period of absence does his pension is affected. Under Art. 272 (1) M.S.R. Govt may condone a deficiency not exceeding twelve months

Serial No.

4) The Points for orders are:

(1) To treat him as Dy Com^r II class permanent or S.P.T. retrospectively

(2) To condone the deficiency in service. [redacted]

K.mR 16/4/37

5) Re: (2), the particulars of service noted above (from the History of Services) appear to indicate that excluding the leave without allowances the officer would have put in 29 years & 3 days by the date of his superannuation and the shortage to make up 30 years would seem within the limit of 12 months that can be condoned under Art. 272 of the M.S.R.

6) Re:(1): During the last 3 years of his service (from 22-9-34), he has actually been (i) III class P.T. from 22.9.34 to 29.5.35,

(ii) III class permanent from 30.5.35 to 31.1.36.

(iii) II class acting from 1-2-36, with prospect of (iv) confirmation in II class from 18.2.37.

Periods (i), (ii) & (iv) may count for pension as the tenures are permanent.

In regard to (III), it is beyond powers.

In case, Mr Abdul Khadir is also permitted to Count the probationary period for purposes of pension, the total qualifying Service put in by him, comes to 29 years and 3 days. The period required to bring the total qualifying Service to 30 years, to enable him to draw ½ of his net emoluments as pension amounts to 11 months and 27 days. (1) That the shortage in service required to make up 30 years may be condoned. ~~so that he may get a pension~~

(2) That the acting emoluments drawn by him as acting Dy. Comr, II. class, during the last 3 years of his service, may be allowed to Count for pension (so that he may get a pension of Rs500.)

Re : (i) Condonation of Shortage

24 According to the Comptroller's admitted figure, the officer's net qualifying service comes to 26 years and 10 months. He has put in a service of 2 y. 2 m. 2 d. as a Probationer (excluding leave without allowances) and there have been instances in which such period has been allowed to Count for pension. If a similar concession be allowed and the whole of the probationary period is counted, then the total qualifying service would amount to 29 y - 0 - 2 d. The balance required to make up 30 years would be less than a year, and within the limit up to which Govt. can condone shortage under Art 272 M.S.

25 Out of the acting period in the II Class from 1.2.36 to 17.2.1937, the period from 1.8.36 to 17.2.1937 Counts against Mr K.V. Ramanathan's employment on special duty outside the general cadre. The Comptroller who was asked to state if P.P. arrangements can be made in his vacancy points out that under Art 64 (the C.S.R, PP arrts. can be made only if the officer on spl duty is not expected to revert within 3 years and as the period of Mr Ramanathan's special duty is not fixed, no p.p. arrt. is admissible. Though no specific period has been fixed it is for consideration if the acting emoluments drawn by Mr T. Abdul Khader against his vacancy may not be allowed to Count. Mr. Abdul Khader's request for Counting acting emoluments drawn in leave vacancies etc prior to 1.8.36 is one not covered by ordinary rules & is for Special orders. 26 Hour far it is possible to comply with his ~~request~~ request ~~to this~~ ~~that he may~~ & enable him to draw a pension of Rs 500/- p.m. may be examined further in the Finance dept.

MS 2/6/37

Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the representation of Mr. T. Abdul Khadir, Deputy Commissioner (now on leave preparatory to retirement from 22nd September 1937) for the grant of certain concessions in respect of his pension.

Excluding leave without allowances taken by him on three occasions, Mr. Abdul Khadir will have put in by 22nd September 1937 a total service of 29 years and 2 days, of which a period of 2 years, 2 months and 2 days relates to the probation undergone. The net service qualifying for pension under the ordinary rules thus amounts to 26 years and 10 months.

With a view to enable him to draw a higher pension, Mr. Abdul Khadir requests that the deficiency in his service required to make up 30 years may be condoned, and that the emoluments drawn by him as Deputy Commissioner, 2nd Class acting, may be allowed to count for pension.

S. T. V.

In some cases in the past, probation period put in by officers has been allowed to count for pension and it is proposed to show a similar concession to Mr. Abdul Khadir and allow him to count for pension the probationary service of 2 years, 2 months and 2 days. The total period of his qualifying service will then come to 29 years and 2 days, and it is proposed to condone the deficiency of 11 months and 28 days that will still be needed to make up 30 years of service, under the provisions of Article 272 of the M.S.R.

Mr. Abdul Khadir was acting as a Deputy Commissioner of the Second Class from 1st February 1936 to 17th February 1937 and was confirmed in that class from 18th February 1937. Under the rules, acting allowances cannot be taken into account for purposes of average emoluments for calculation of pension. Mr. Abdul Khadir represents that, as a special case, he may be allowed pension based on the acting emoluments (at Rs.1,000/- per mensem) drawn by him during the period referred to above. An examination of the vacancies in which he acted shows that a better tenure can be given to him from 1st August 1936 to 17th February 1937, and it is proposed to permit the emoluments for this period being counted at Rs.1.000/- per mensem for calculation of pension.

The above proposals have been concurred in by the Financial Secretary and the Members of Council and I beg to recommend that they may be graciously approved.

Sir,

I am directed to say that Mr T. WD 0417—GPB—30,000—8-9-36

CS 1180 - 86 - 1

Office of the Deputy Commissioner,
Tumkur District,
Dated, Tumkur, the 8th April 1937.

Dear sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your Confidential D.O letter ordering my retirement.

While disposing of my case finally I beg that the following representation will be favourably considered:-

For a long time in the past and also at about the time I was appointed as Deputy Commissioner, Third Class, the Post of Director of Industries and Commerce was being filled by Senior Deputy Commissioners. The last two such Senior Deputy Commissioners were Messrs. A. V. Ramanathan and S. Abdul Wajid In the usual course there would have been chances of early promotion to me to the Second Class if when the vacancy of a Director of Industries and Commerce had occurred and a Senior Deputy Commissioner had been appointed as usual to the post, for instance in the vacancy caused on Mr. Abdul Wajid's appointment as Excise Commissioner. But the successor appointed to Mr. S. Abdul Wajid was an officer - Mr. S. G. Sastry - outside the cadre of the Deputy Commissioners, and I happened to loose a chance of promotion to the Second Class then. I do not criticise the appointment of Mr. S. G. Sastry, but merely mention its effect in my case.

Similarly the post of Trade Commissioner in London was being conferred on Senior Deputy Commissioners, e.g., Messrs C. Raghunatha Rao Saheb and B. T. Kesava Iyengar. But recently an officer - Mr. T. V. A. Iswaran, - Junior to me was appointed and indirectly I lost a chance of being promoted. I again beg to submit that I am not criticising the policy of the Government or the merits of the officer appointed to the above mentioned post. But as I have already mentioned some changes in the policy of the Government have adversely affected my promotions during recent years and since I became Deputy Commissioner.

But the Government order of 10th July 1934 reducing reducing the number of Deputy Commissioners in the First and Second Classes has hit me very seriously. Prior to passing of this order I had been twice acting in the Second Class for a period of seven months - 1-9-33 to 29-4-34 continuously at one time in some vacancy or other and for a second time from 20-6-34 to 9-7-34. These acting promotions clearly show that under the old rules I had the best chances of being in the Second Class in 1934 before the passing of the G.O. of July 1934. But after the passing of that order my chances for promotion to Second Class never came between 9-7-34 to 1-2-36 - a long interval of 1½ years - owing to the change in the rules. Although very soon after the passing of this order of July 1934 some vacancies in the higher classes occurred yet I could not get any benefit. Mr. N. Sundararaja Iyengar who was permanently promoted to the Deputy Commissioner's cadre(Third Class)at the same time as myself, got the benefits of longer vacancies on account of his seniority, quite properly. When I lost my chances under the G.O. quoted above, he continued in the Second Class although the difference between Mr. N. Sundararaja Iyengar and myself was only a few months in the Second Class when each of us was promoted. Even though I was reverted I should have got a promotion early to the Second Grade, for instance, when Mr. C. S. Kuppuswami Iyengar retired in May 1935, or when Mr. K. V. Anantaraman was promoted as Chief Secretary or Revenue Commissioner, if the number of Deputy Commissioners in the First and Second Classes had remained the same as before the passing of the G.O. quoted above. I believe I am the only Deputy Commissioner at the tail end of his service whose pension is affected by the G.O. quoted above - the others being younger men with the certainity of putting in qualifying service of a long period enough to earn the full pension. As facts are, although I was appointed as Deputy Commissioner, Third Class, on 14-11-32, and I will be retired on 22-9-37 i.e., after serving for nearly five years as Deputy Commissioner, yet I shall have been only Deputy Com-

Commissioner ~~on~~ Third Class for this period and for only two years as permanent Deputy Commissioner in Third Class.

The present acting promotion to me on 1-2-36 given in the usual course under the new rules has no doubt given a temporary increase of Rs.200/- per month to my salary, but it will not permanently give an increase to my pension which alone will be a lasting benefit to me. Considering the long period during which I have been acting continuously in the Second Class, I believe, it is my due, in the usual course to be confirmed or treated at least as sub-pro-tem retrospectively in the Second Class. This it is submitted, does not give any increase to my salary during this period. It will however, considerably augment my pension emoluments. It is only the length of period I serve as permanent or sub-pro-tem Deputy Commissioner in the Second Class which will benefit me.

In conclusion. I have to state that although I complete 30 years of service, yet on account of my having taken leave without allowances for about a year and four months in the early part of my service my retirement causes considerable reduction in my pension emoluments, as this long period of absence on leave without allownaces does not count for service towards pension. - Thus my service actually falls short of thirty years by one year and four months. I am unable to suggest how the Government may condone this long break in my favour.

I beg that the Government will favourably consider my case.

Yours sincerely,

B. T. Kesava Iyengar, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to Government of Mysore,
